KAUAI POLICE MAKE HAUL OF GAMBLERS

Garden Island.—The police discovered that the Kapaa gamblers had opened one of their joints a short time ago and last Wednesday went over and caught some of them redhanded.

It has been rumored for some time that the lessons taught the keepers of gambling houses on Kauai by the wholesale prosecution of them a year ago was beginning to wear off, and that one or two places were running full blast again. Kapaa, of old the center of the former hul, was designated as the place where che-fa and uchikau was proving a good thing for somebody.

The Deputy Sheriff of Kawaihau who is supposed to keep track of the law-breakers in his district is again suffering from his old complaint, a tired feeling. Sheriff Rice therefore thought that he would look after the district himself and for that purpose secured all the information he could from outside sources. He found that within a quarter of a mile from the residence of the Deputy Sheriff and the court house, there was being conducted a thriving business in che-fa and uchikau.

Last Wednesday he sent his captain of police and two officers from Lihue over to gather in the sinners. As the gamblers have a well organized system of vittettes it was useless to have them go there in the usual manner, so he sent them over as drummers trunk.

They arrived at the spot all unsuspected by the sentinels and were in the gambling room before alarm could be raised. They found uchikau to be in full blast, the che-fa drawing having taken place a short while before hand. They were, however, only three in a room with a lot of Chinese and Japanese who had seen doors through which to make their escape, and therefore were at odds. As it was, they succeeded in corraling four of the gamblers who turned out to be a Japanese by the name of Mori and three Chinese answering to the names of Ahana, Ah Sing and Ah Sang.

The house was found to be fitted up in the regulation style with barricades for both doors and windows. Long security from being incommode by visits from the Deputy Sheriff had evidently made the keepers careless as they had neglected to make up of this precaution at the time.

SKELETON FOUND AND QUICKLY LOST

Garden Island.—When Captain of Police Gardner went to Kapaa last week, the seaman ferrying him across the Waialua river told him that a friend of his had found a skeleton down on the beach at Kapena, some two weeks ago. Captain Gardner remembered that a number of years ago a Japanese murdered in Hanamalu had been buried by his slayers in the sand at that same point and thought that something in the same line might be the case now. He therefore immediately telephoned Sheriff Rice about the matter, and the latter sent Deputy Sheriff Ellis over to investigate.

Deputy Sheriff Ellis soon located the native fisherman who had made the discovery and took him and a Portuguese, who had been present at the time, along down to the beach. The two discoverers had raised a stone cairn where they had found the body in order to mark the place where they had buried it. The place was therefore easily found but not so with the skeleton. All the efforts of the men to find it were futile.

The discoverers explained that when they found the skeleton it was just sticking out of the sand, as if the heavy rains of the winter had washed the sand covering it away. All the flesh was gone, but the hair was still there, showing that death had occurred not more than five years previously.

They had buried it where they found it, just at the edge of highwater, a fact which possibly accounts for its disappearance, when the recent high surfs are taken into consideration.

About three years ago a rifle and a lot of ammunition was stolen from Mr. Berman, the manager of Hanamalu store. No trace of it was ever discovered until Deputy Sheriff Ellis and his men found it hidden among stones a few hundred feet from the place where the skeleton was found. The rifle was identified by Mr. Berman through its number. Whether there is any connection between the disappearance of the weapon and the skeleton is of course very hard to tell at this late date.

"MAKE HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES."

There is a lesson in the work of the thiefy farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so likely to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cramp colic may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.
